FRANCISCO "PACO" GAVRILIDES is a much sought-after retreat master on Sacred Scripture, faith and conversion, spiritual growth and prayer, and family life.

Paco converted to the Catholic Church in 1968, and has since dedicated his life to serving Christ in the Church, enriching the lives of thousands of Catholics with his Spirit-filled passion for Christ, Sacred Scripture, and Church teachings.

For over twenty years Paco has served as a Catholic missionary with the Catholic Charismatic Renewal Ministries—an organization dedicated to evangelization and spiritual renewal in the Catholic Church. Paco currently serves as Homiletics Instructor at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, Detroit. He served in the Archdiocese of Detroit's Office for Evangelization where, for ten years, he coordinated and emceed the Archdiocesan Catholic Men's Conference.

Paco received his Baccalaureate of Sacred Theology from Monterrey, Mexico, and his Licentiate Degree in the New Evangelization from Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit. Paco and his wife Inez together give retreats and workshops for married couples. They have three children.
